

How much should I expect to pay for SOLIQUA 100/33?

Many patients have questions when it comes to the cost and insurance coverage of SOLIQUA 100/33.

Below is some key information that could be helpful.

The price of prescription drugs can sometimes seem complicated, but keep in mind that the price you pay depends on a number of things:

- Whether you have prescription drug insurance
- The type of insurance you have
- Whether your insurance provider considers the medication to be preferred or not preferred
- Whether you've met your deductible
- The pharmacy you use to fill your prescriptions

To learn more about cost, select the button below that most describes your prescription coverage:

What Is a List Price?

All prescription medications have a list price, but very few patients pay the list price, which is a price set by the manufacturer. The list price of SOLIQUA 100/33 is $890.87 USD per pack, but most people will not pay the list price.^a

A monthly supply of SOLIQUA 100/33 is considered to be 2 packs per month.

Sanofi Patient Connection[®]

Sanofi Patient Connection is a program designed to assist patients with 3 main types of patient support:

- Reimbursement or Benefit Verification Services
- Access to product for those facing financial difficulty
- Other resources available to patients

These resources can be accessed online 24/7 at www.sanofipatientconnection.com, or by phone Monday-Friday, 9:00 AM-8:00 PM EST, at 1-888-VISITSPC (1-888-847-4877).

COMMERCIAL/EMPLOYER PROVIDED INSURANCE

On average, 80% of patients, or 8 out of 10, will pay between $0–$20 per month for a prescription of SOLIQUA 100/33. The remaining 20% will pay an average of $51 per month. Your actual cost or co-pay depends on your insurance plan’s drug coverage. Each plan is different and determines your out-of-pocket cost.^b

The SOLIQUA 100/33 Savings Card

If you have commercial prescription insurance, you may be eligible to save on SOLIQUA 100/33: Your co-pay may be as little as $35* for a 30-day supply, with a maximum savings of $365 per pack, up to 2 packs for each 30-day supply, for the duration of the program. Call 1-855-262-5295 or click to apply.

Terms & conditions apply. See eligibility requirements on the next page under the Frequently Asked Questions.

MEDICARE PART D COVERAGE INFORMATION

9 out of 10 Medicare Part D patients are covered for SOLIQUA 100/33.

SOLIQUA 100/33 is included under the Inflation Reduction Act (Medicare Part D Insulin Savings), which provides insulin savings, capping monthly cost at $35 for Seniors who have Medicare Part D. This ensures a predictable, stable copay, regardless of phase including the donut hole.

This cap extends to all Part D plans that cover SOLIQUA 100/33.

As a patient, you automatically have access to these savings and no longer need to enroll in a participating program or plan.

If you are eligible for Extra Help Medicare program, you will pay no more than $11.20 for a monthly supply of SOLIQUA 100/33.

MEDICAID INFORMATION

The average out-of-pocket cost for Medicaid patients in 2022 was $2 per month.^b

To find out if you qualify for Medicaid, or for more information about co-pays under Medicaid in your state, go to <https://www.medicaid.gov/state-overviews>.

NO INSURANCE COVERAGE

What do most people who are uninsured pay?

If you do not have insurance that covers your prescription medications, or if your insurance does not cover SOLIQUA 100/33 you can typically expect to pay the list price shown above plus any additional pharmacy charges. The price you pay varies from pharmacy to pharmacy. However, eligible cash-paying patients and patients who have commercial insurance, but do not have prescription coverage for SOLIQUA 100/33 may pay as little as $99 per pack.[†] Based on the cost of the drug, occurrences of greater than $99 per pack co-pay will be rare. IL and LA have taxes that may impact the $99 co-pay.

[†] This is $99 per pack; up to 2 packs, per 30-day supply. If a patient requires 2 packs, they will pay $198.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

I am a Medicare Part D patient. Is SOLIQUA 100/33 included in any Insulin Savings programs?

The Inflation Reduction Act [Medicare Insulin Savings] caps the cost of insulin at a maximum $35 per month, including in the donut hole, for patients who have Medicare Part D coverage. Patients no longer need to enroll in a program. GLP-1 RAs are not covered.

What if my prescription insurance changes once I am on SOLIQUA 100/33?

Notify your pharmacy. In fact, when you take medications that require refills regularly over time, it's always good to periodically check that your pharmacy has your most up-to-date insurance information on file. This can help you avoid potential delays in getting your prescription.

What are the eligibility requirements for the SOLIQUA 100/33 Co-pay Card?

The SOLIQUA 100/33 Savings Card program will offer co-pay savings for patients ages 18 and older and a resident of the United States, Puerto Rico, Guam, or the US Virgin Islands.

SOLIQUA[®] Savings Program: This savings program is not insurance. This offer is not valid for prescriptions covered by or submitted for reimbursement, in whole or in part, under Medicare, Medicaid, VA, DOD, TRICARE, similar federal or state programs, including any state pharmaceutical programs. If you have an Affordable Care [Health Care Exchange] plan, you may still be qualified to receive and use this savings card. Please note: the Federal Employees Health Benefits [FEHB] Program is not a federal or state government health care program for purposes of the savings program. Void where prohibited by law. For the duration of the program, eligible commercially insured patients who are payer approved may pay as little as $35 for a 30-day supply, with a maximum savings of $365 per pack, up to 2 packs, for each 30-day supply. Eligible commercially insured patients who are payer rejected and cash paying patients may pay as little as $99 per pack, up to 2 packs, for each 30-day supply. Savings may vary depending on patients' out-of-pocket costs. The SOLIQUA[®] Savings Program applies to the cost of medication. There are other relevant costs associated with overall treatment. Sanofi reserves the right to rescind, revoke, terminate, or amend this offer, eligibility, and terms of use at any time without notice. Upon registration, patients will receive all program details. For questions regarding your eligibility or benefits, or if you wish to discontinue your participation, call the SOLIQUA[®] Savings Program at [855] 262-5295 [8:00 am-8:00 pm EST, Monday-Friday].

REFERENCES:

- List price is also referred to as wholesale acquisition cost or WAC. WAC is the price at which Sanofi sells its products to wholesalers. Patients may have to pay a higher price than list price due to additional pharmacy charges. List price as of 01/2024.
- IQVIA LAAD data, Patient Claims Final OOP Cost per Script by Channel Jan 2022 - August 2022.